Adoptable Cat

Meet Ranger! He's a very cute gray-and-black tabby kitten with pretty eyes.

He's named after the Army Rangers because he's great at sneak attacks—catnip mice better watch out. He used to live in a home with other cats and dogs, so he gets along well with other animals.

Adoptable Dog

Meet Danny! He's a playful dachshund mix who charms everyone he meets because he's so much fun.

He's about 4 years old, but he still has the curiosity of a puppy and needs a friend to play with. He is housetrained, takes treats politely, and gets along well with other dogs and cats. When he isn't "battling" with blankets, he likes to wrap himself up in them and take a nap.
