RZA: We're Not Different in Any Important Way

We are all the same in all the ways that matter.
It doesn't matter what we look like, how old we are,
what language we speak,
or who we love.

It doesn't matter if we have fur or feathers
or fins,
the length of our nose,
or the number of legs.

We're not different in any important way.

We all have thoughts and feelings.

We all feel love
and pain
and loneliness
and joy.

We can all understand,
but we are not always understanding.

We experience ourselves as separate from the rest, but none of us deserves to be treated with less respect.

Our task must be to break free from prejudice
and to see ourselves in everyone else.
